University Committee Nominations 2017-2018

Each year the University of Florida offers faculty the opportunity to participate in its governance through various university committees, boards, and councils. A list of these groups can be found at UF Faculty Senate website

The Senate Nominating Committee invites nominations, including self-nominations, for fall 2017 appointments.

The nomination form is posted on the Senate website. Please fully complete the form before submitting as this information will be used in the voting process for senate committees and councils elections.

If you choose to nominate a colleague, please confirm their willingness to serve before submitting. Also, please verify that you (or your nominee) meet the requirements, if any, to serve on the committee(s). Note: the nomination form includes the Senate Councils and only current faculty senators are eligible for service on these.

On the form you may indicate your (or your nominee's) willingness to serve "as needed" on any committee, which will increase the likely of an appointment.

Please submit the completed form by 5 PM, January 31, 2017.

On behalf of the committee, thank you for your consideration of this opportunity to make unique and meaningful contributions to the University of Florida. If you have any questions concerning these committees, you may call or send an email to any of the members of the Senate Nominating Committee \(listed on the Faculty Senate Website\).

App-y Hour: Mobile Resources for Health

Tuesday, February 21, 1-2pm, Communicore Building Room C2-41A

Looking for high-quality mobile apps to help you in your work? In this session, we will provide brief overviews of a number of mobile apps for clinical work, research, teaching and learning, and productivity. We will also include tips on how to get mobile access to library-subscribed journals and databases.

Best Practices in Research Data Management

Tuesday, February 28, 12-1pm, Communicore Building Room C2-41C

Learn practical strategies for best managing your research data. A number of U.S. funding agencies such as the National Science Foundation and the National Institutes of Health require researchers to supply plans for managing research data, called Data Management Plans (DMP), for all new grant proposals. This workshop will provide an overview of the questions to consider when creating a data management plan, with a focus on the DMPTool and tools for sharing your data at the University of Florida (e.g. subject-specific repositories). Topics include metadata and annotation, file formats and organization, storage, backups and security, and data sharing. The workshop is geared toward graduate students, faculty, and researchers.

Drug Information: Beyond UF Resources

Monday, April 3, 11am-12pm, Communicore Building Room C2-41A

What drug resources will you be able to access when you are no longer affiliated with UF ? When you leave UF you will lose access to our paid resources, so you will need alternative sources. This session will go over the resources listed on the pharmacy LibGuide's After Graduation page. We will discuss some of the sites and their usefulness, including some sites that will lead you to other resources. The emphasis is on free sites and resources.

https://rod.sumtotalsystems.com/ufshands/app/management/LMS_ActDetails.aspx?UserMode=0&ActivityId=23427

Note: This room has videoconference capabilities. Please contact the instructor at rjesano@ufl.edu with your IP address well in advance if you want to video conference to your site, so that we can set up videoconferencing. You will need to make your room arrangements at your site.

EndNote

Tuesday, February 14, 9am-10am, Communicore Building Room C2-3

Thursday, March 16, 9-10am, Communicore Building Room C2-3

Come and see what you can do with EndNote, a program designed to help you organize your reference citations. You will learn how to create and navigate the EndNote libraries, enter individual citations, and search/retrieve citations from EndNote, as well as how to download citations from PubMed, library catalogs, other databases, and import them into your library. We will learn how to use the 'Cite While You Write' toolbar and different ways of inserting citations into your papers for publication. It's easy to generate a bibliography according to the style of any particular journal! This class focuses on the desktop version of EndNote and addresses some unique features of EndNote Online.

Introduction to CINAHL

Thursday, February 23, 1-2pm, Communicore Building Room C2-3

Monday, April 3, 1pm-2pm, Communicore Building Room C2-3

Looking for an introduction to the premier database of nursing and allied health literature? This class introduces you to basic and advanced search options; performing more accurate searches using CINAHL headings; using limits to narrow and refine your search; printing, emailing, and exporting your citations; creating a personal account to store your citations; and finding full-text articles.

https://rod.sumtotalsystems.com/ufshands/app/management/LMS_ActDetails.aspx?UserMode=0&ActivityId=23442

Part 3: Tuesday, March 28, 1-3pm, Communicore Building Room C2-41A

https://rod.sumtotalsystems.com/ufshands/app/management/LMS_ActDetails.aspx?UserMode=0&ActivityId=23443

Basics of medical terminology. Key concepts and word building, as well as the basics of body structure, including cells, tissues, organs and body planes will be covered. Parts 1, 2 and 3 make up a single 6-hour course. Attendees should plan to attend all three sessions in order to complete the training.

NIH Public Access Policy

Wednesday, March 15, Communicore Building Room C2-41A

This workshop provides an introduction to the NIH Public Access Policy and demonstrates how to fulfill compliance requirements. We will cover how to use My Bibliography and the NIH Manuscript Submission System and discuss the various approaches of journal publishers towards compliance. Attendees are encouraged to bring their eRA Commons login and a list of their NIH-funded articles along with a mobile laptop or tablet so that they can follow 'hands-on'.

https://rod.sumtotalsystems.com/ufshands/app/management/LMS_ActDetails.aspx?UserMode=0&ActivityId=23452

PubMed

Wednesday, February 1, 11am-12pm, Communicore Building Room C2-3

Thursday, March 23, 12pm-1pm, Communicore Building Room C2-3

This class will take you step-by-step through effective literature search and save techniques-starting smartly, limiting efficiently without losing "good stuff", searching for specific info (authors, types of publications, specific journals) and refining your search. Depending on participant interests/needs and time, we may also cover setting up email alerts, transferring to bibliographic software like RefWorks or EndNote, filtering for evidence-based studies, building collections within PubMed or other functions within PubMed.

Web of Science

Thursday, February 16, 11am-12pm, Communicore Building Room C2-3

Compiling a bibliography? Trying to find interdisciplinary materials that fall between the sciences and the social sciences? Then search the Web of Science! Learn keyword and author searching while exploring this database's ability to move backward and forward through reference lists. Determine what sources were used in writing a given article and what subsequent publications cited that particular article. Find related articles that cite several of the same references in their bibliographies.
