

APRIL 21, 2016 TIPS, TOOLS AND TIMESAVERS

Interface

The Spring 2016 Interface will be an interactive event that highlights low- and high-technology learning tools. Interface will bring faculty together to share experiences and time-saving tips, from their use of technology in teaching to support in active learning methods. Try out the tools others have used to transform the teaching and learning experience and be inspired by your colleagues from different disciplines across campus!

Find new ways to engage students in Active Learning!
